THE SCHOOL BY THE BAY By Robert Stern

By the bay it stands with its arms stretched opened wide,
It's the Roosevelt School that makes our faces beam with pride.
Onward and upward we stand beside our school.
Our memories will last as we dearly think of you.
It's inside your halls that we're guided every day,
All along your sturdy walls we see our school work on display.
Here's to all, here's to all who make our school so grand.
Together we are strong as we all work hand in hand.
Oh, your spirit shines like a star high up above.
All the time we spent here, it fills our hearts with so much love!
Roosevelt, Roosevelt, the school that's by the bay,
Has taught us all so well, that we'll never lose our way!
